This is why we are here.
To enable economic growth and societal progress.
To realise plans and ambitions.
For clients and employees, investors and communities.
#PositiveImpact

With our Born to Be youth engagement programme, we enable young people to reach their full potential.
Our Made for Good initiatives empower ventures that create wider social good.
Wherever we operate, we help to build stronger and more inclusive communities.

We do this together with like-minded partners and with the support of our people. Our Plus You volunteering and plugging community as well as our public advocacy, maximises the impact of our projects, which we monitor annually with our Global Impact Tracking.

Our corporate social responsibility mission:
Enabling communities and economies to prosper.

Volunteering not only boosts the impact of our programmes, but also the personal and professional development of our colleagues from across the globe. It’s a powerful way to show that the expert lies within you, that taking action can make a difference.

Volunteers can donate a part of their paid working week, or a percentage of their leisure time, to the projects they believe in.

In the community
We provide local support for communities and society’s most disadvantaged by supporting infrastructure projects, offering basic welfare or immediate disaster relief.

Pathways to Banking and Finance

Volunteering Matters – Support my Future

Support for Future Community - Deutsche Bank volunteers with 13-15 year old students with need help with maths, English or a career interview. Weekly sessions help to boost confidence and establish achievable aspirations.

Design Venture

Our partnership with the Design Museum gives students hands-on experience of commercial design and business skills. Teams answer a design brief to create a product for a specified company/industry professional. The winning team works with specialists to develop and market their product in the museum shop.

connect create connect create is a multi-venue programme with award winning charities. For young people and people with autism to develop confidence, social, and key skills required for future employment.

Our commitment in the UK

Around the world, we apply our global corporate social responsibility strategy according to the most relevant local concerns.

Here in the UK, we focus on supporting education projects that prepare young people to be the workforce of tomorrow through our Born To Be programme. We encourage social and creative enterprise to help drive positive change in society under our Made for Good programme, and we help to build inclusive communities through initiatives that support homeless people and refugees. We do this together with like-minded partners and with the support of our people.

Volunteer Vision

Deutsche Bank partners with Volunteer Vision, a leading provider of volunteering opportunities and online resources to support people in need to gain skills and experience of volunteering.

StreetSmart

During November and December, restaurants throughout the UK encourage patrons to donate £1 to their bill to nearby charities that alleviate and prevent homelessness in the local community.

Made for Good

Deutsche Bank Small Grants Fund

The Deutsche Bank Small Grants Fund provides grants of up to £5,000 to charities in London and Birmingham to help improve local social isolation and promote mental health and well-being.

Supporting Breakthrough Barriers

One of the 120,000 refugees in the UK are conflict-affected. Deutsche Bank volunteers support a business incubator programme for local residents run by Hatch. A free 12-week course equips building entrepreneurs with the essentials for starting their own businesses.
