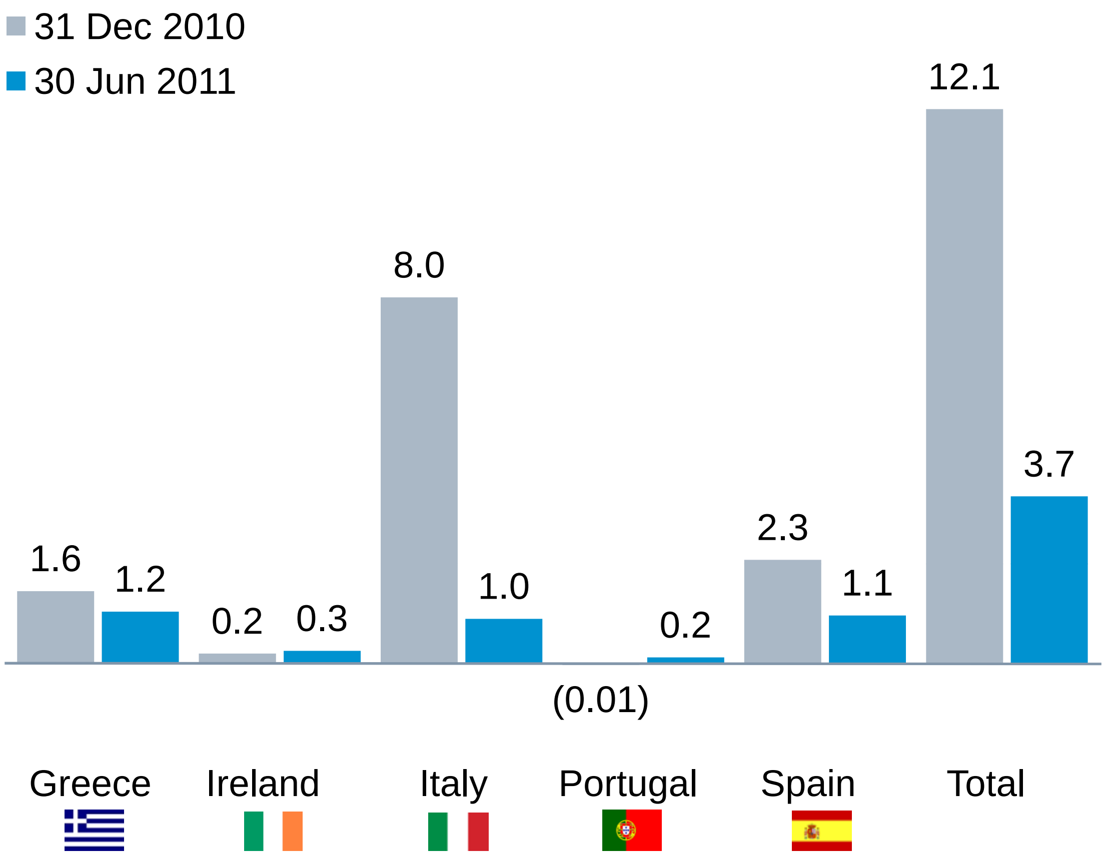
Sovereign exposures well under control
In EUR bn

Overview of net sovereign exposure



Key features

- Joint sovereign exposure (net) to Greece, Ireland, Italy, Portugal and Spain declined 70% to EUR 3.7 bn as of 30 Jun 2011 vs. 31 Dec 2010, due to targeted risk reductions, paydowns and fair value changes from market price movements

Update on 2011 targets

Income before income taxes, in EUR bn

	1H2011	Phase 4 potential 2011	Key features / Prospects
Corporate Banking & Securities	3.3	6.4	— Material deterioration of market assumptions versus plan. Concerns intensified over sovereign debt risk leading to increased client uncertainty — Achievement of IBIT goal is highly predicated on return of client confidence
Global Transaction Banking	0.5	1.0	— Benefiting from initial positive impact from higher short-term interest rates
Asset and Wealth Management	0.4	1.0
Private & Business Clients	1.2	1.6	— Expect to continue to capitalize on relatively strong German business conditions — PBC well ahead of plan; efficiency cost programme on track
Total business divisions	5.5	10.0

Outlook into 2H2011

- Considerable near term uncertainties in the Eurozone, in the world economy, in financial markets, and in the new regulatory environment
- EUR 10 bn earnings target is still achievable but predicated on a recovery in European capital markets and progress with regards to a solution of the European debt crisis
- Strong performance of our classical banking businesses continue to provide meaningful earnings diversification and is evidence of our strategic progress
- Lower funding requirements and diversification of funding sources support our stable funding outlook
- Continued focus on capital generation

In challenging times, Deutsche Bank is staying the course: building a focused, well-capitalised, risk-efficient, and well-balanced platform for profitable growth.

Cautionary statements

This presentation contains forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are statements that are not historical facts; they include statements about our beliefs and expectations and the assumptions underlying them. These statements are based on plans, estimates and projections as they are currently available to the management of Deutsche Bank. Forward-looking statements therefore speak only as of the date they are made, and we undertake no obligation to update publicly any of them in light of new information or future events.

By their very nature, forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties. A number of important factors could therefore cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statement. Such factors include the conditions in the financial markets in Germany, in Europe, in the United States and elsewhere from which we derive a substantial portion of our revenues and in which we hold a substantial portion of our assets, the development of asset prices and market volatility, potential defaults of borrowers or trading counterparties, the implementation of our strategic initiatives, the reliability of our risk management policies, procedures and methods, and other risks referenced in our filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Such factors are described in detail in our SEC Form 20-F of 15 March 2011 under the heading “Risk Factors.” Copies of this document are readily available upon request or can be downloaded from www.deutsche-bank.com/ir.

This presentation also contains non-IFRS financial measures. For a reconciliation to directly comparable figures reported under IFRS, to the extent such reconciliation is not provided in this presentation, refer to the 2Q2011 Financial Data Supplement, which is accompanying this presentation and available at www.deutsche-bank.com/ir.
